Councilman Garry “Frog” Talbert questioned Mr. Christopher Moody, Parish legal counsel, his opinion if a third party in Administration was authorized to sign parish checks. Mr. Moody advised that he had reviewed the Attorney General’s opinion on the matter that Councilman Talbert had addressed and that he agreed that the only two (2) eligible signatories permitted per the Home Rule Charter were the Parish President and the Parish’s Finance Director. If a third party would be included as a signatory, then the Home Rule Charter would need to be amended in an election. The chair allowed an open discussion addressing the need to have an additional signatory if the Parish President or the Finance Director were not available to co-sign a parish check.
